F. AIRLINE RESPONSIBILITIES

Airline equipment and routings are subject to change and will not result in any refunds. Flight delays, changes and cancellations are an inherent risk of any air travel. #### G. ADL MODIFICATION

Participant hereby authorizes the Anti-Defamation League ("ADL") to alter or modify the itinerary, any arrangements, or any aspects of NECTS, at anytime and from time to time. #### H. CANCELLATION POLICY

Participant understands and agrees that ADL and Diesenhaus Unitours Incoming Tourism, and/or Interface Travel Group are intermediaries for other service providers and shall not be liable or responsible to Participant for breach of contract, failure to provide services, or any intentional or careless actions or omissions on the part of any provider of services (such as air carriage, hotel accommodations, ground transportation, meals, tours, cruises, guide services, etc.); and that ADL and Diesenhaus Unitours Incoming Tourism, and/or Interface Travel Group shall not be liable or responsible for any delay, theft, loss, damage, or injury sustained by Participant or Participant's property arising from any action, inaction, activity, condition or development, normal or abnormal, expected or unexpected, including, without limitation, terrorist activities, social or labor unrest, mechanical or construction difficulties, diseases, local laws, climactic conditions, governmental acts, currency fluctuations, or any modification, curtailment, or cancellation, in whole or in part, of any of the arrangements pertaining to, or services to be provided for, or facilities to be furnished in connection with NECTS, or before or after NECTS if Participant chooses to extend Participant's trip, for whatever reason or cause. Participant hereby releases and agrees to hold each of ADL and Diesenhaus Unitours Incoming Tourism, and/or Interface Travel Group harmless from and against any claims Participant may have arising from or relating to any of the foregoing.

Participant acknowledges that Participant is aware of risks associated with NECTS, and that Participant is solely and individually responsible for obtaining appropriate insurance coverage against them.

J. MEDICAL CLEARANCE

Participant has consulted a physician of Participant's own choice and has been advised by such physician that Participant is in good health, does not suffer from any physical or mental ailment or disability which requires medical or surgical care or treatment, or which would make travel or participation in NECTS hazardous, unwise, unwarranted or a potential source of danger to Participant or others who may participate in NECTS or travel, eat or be sheltered with participants in NECTS. Participant does not have any information or knowledge as to Participant's physical or mental condition which Participant has not disclosed to said physician. If Participant is required to take any medications, or if Participant has any special instructions with regard to medications, allergies, etc. Participant is solely responsible for informing ADL of any special needs, but neither ADL nor Diesenhaus Unitours Incoming Tourism, and/or Interface Travel Group shall have any liability or responsibility with respect to such special needs.

In the event of injury, incapacity or illness to Participant, ADL will use its best efforts to contact the emergency contact designee of Participant as soon as possible. However, if ADL is unable to contact the emergency contact designee named, or in case of an emergency, Participant authorizes ADL to consent to medical treatment on behalf of Participant. Participant agrees that it is Participant's responsibility to pay for medical treatment. Participant hereby assumes all risks associated with or arising from any such medical treatment and agrees to hold each of ADL and Diesenhaus Unitours Incoming Tourism, and/or Interface Travel Group harmless from and against any claims Participant may have arising from or relating to such medical treatment.

K. PHOTO RELEASE

Participant hereby releases and agrees to hold ADL harmless from any claims or liability for damages for libel, slander, invasion of privacy or other claims based on the Publication of any Photographs or Recordings.

L. DEFINITIONS OF ADL, Diesenhaus Unitours Incoming Tourism and Interface Travel Group

Any references to ADL, Diesenhaus Unitours Incoming Tourism, and/or Interface Travel Group shall be deemed to include their subsidiaries and affiliates, as applicable, and the officers, commissioners, directors, trustees, employees, agents, successors, licensees, and assigns of all the foregoing, as applicable.

M. CHOICE OF VENUE AND LAW

Subject: ADL trip to Israel - Logistics

Good afternoon,

Welcome to the ADL Leadership, Resilience and Counter-Terrorism Seminar in Israel. Although we are not leaving until December, we wanted to provide a couple of updates regarding our trip.

- 1) There will be approximately 15 law enforcement professionals in our group. We are in the process of finalizing the group and will send out a complete list of participants in the next couple of weeks.
- 2) Our trip begins in Boston at Logan Airport. Please plan to arrive at 6:00 PM. We will meet at the El Al ticket counter in Terminal E.

On the return flight we depart after midnight on December 11th and arrive home the same day. We will have hotel rooms in Tel Aviv on the day of departure from Israel. A detailed itinerary will not be available until closer to our departure date. It is a long flight and we have found that a good pair of noise cancelling headphones can ease the journey.

- 3) All expenses will be covered by ADL, including airfare from Boston to Tel Aviv (not including upgrades to premium economy seats – see below), all hotels, meals, tours, guides, and admission costs at museums.
- 4) If you have any seating, meal, or frequent flier requests, please let us know. We request aisle seats for everyone. The airline tickets will be issued in the upcoming months and we will send everyone an electronic ticket.
- 5) There are also a limited number of premium economy seats, which cost around $160 extra each way. If you would like one of these premium seats, please let us know, and we will do our best to upgrade you. Because there are a limited number of premium seats available, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to upgrade you, and premium seats will be assigned on a first come first serve basis. Should you be upgraded, you will be responsible for the added charge.
- 6) Airline tickets, packing list and hotel information will be sent out in the next month or so. One item to think about now is patches, pins and caps for the Israel Police (it is very likely they will have the same for you).
- 7) We compile a short bio book on the participants as way to help everyone get to know one another and we also share it with the Israel National Police in advance. Please send a bio and head shot to Jake Stuckey at jstuckey@adl.org.
- 8) If you are in the process of renewing your passport, please provide Talia with the details once you have it. This information is required to clear all security issues in advance. If you are traveling on a red government passport, please let us know as you may need to obtain a visa. There is no visa requirement for "blue" American passports.
- 9) Additionally, we wanted to bring the following to your attention: Jewish Voice for Peace (JVP), a radical anti-Israel activist group that advocates for a complete economic, cultural and academic boycott of the state of Israel, has been sending Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests to a number of law enforcement agencies that have participated in ADL's seminars in Israel. We wanted to provide you with background on JVP and their activities.

"Deadly Exchange" is their latest propaganda campaign, which falsely asserts that American Jewish institutions are responsible for rising levels of police brutality and racism against people of color in the U.S. because we sponsor joint training programs between American and Israeli law enforcement agencies. To quote their website, in such law enforcement exchange programs, "worst practices" are shared to promote and extend discriminatory and repressive policing in both countries including extrajudicial executions, shoot-to-kill policies, police murders, racial profiling, massive spying and surveillance, deportation and detention, and attacks on human rights defenders." In some cities, JVP has local affiliates that go by different names. In one small city, their local affiliate even petitioned the local city council to drop associations with these programs. We wanted to make sure you were aware of them and their agenda, should you hear from them. Here is a link to additional information about JVP on ADL's website.

Should you receive a FOIA request, which may come through an organization called MuckRock, we respectfully ask that we be notified if your agency considers disclosing any of the documents or information we've provided. You may notify us at generalcounsel@adl.org.

- 10) Please feel free to contact us should you have any questions or concerns. In addition, if you would like your executive assistant to be copied on email correspondence, please let us know.

We look forward to traveling with each of you.

Best,

Robert and Talla
